PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Chinese Education Express 1+3 (UG) Program is specially customized by the College of International Education, WZU for international students who expect to study for Chinese bachelor degrees. With the concept of "Internet + international education" and relying on the most cutting-edge education technology and teaching modes, the program is successfully divided into two stages: learning at homeland and study in China.

In the first year, students have to complete the specialized fundamental courses in their home country, and then begin to learn the core courses in China since the second year. Adopting 1+3 education mode, the program has changed the traditional way of studying in China, which can achieve the goal of talent training more accurately and efficiently and ensure a high quality of international education.
